Leading with training innovation and pioneering technologies, cortexX™ elevates the digital and remote learning experience, streamlined across one definitive platform. Bringing next level digital learning to all, where personalized tools and content combine seamlessly.

Discover flexible and collaborative learning, upgraded features, enhanced resources, course management control and shared connectivity to boost optimum engagement. When high performing results are key, cortexX™ delivers.

The essential digital platform has arrived, inspiring next generation learning cultures with accelerated skills, immersive knowledge and curated training. It's time to connect, unite and learn together.

WHY CORTEX™?

ANYTIME ACCESS LEARNING

Expect new courses, seminars and live content to land frequently, plus faster ways to request training. We provide essential career development tools, no matter where you're located. On-the-go? No problem. Pick up where you left off at a time to suit you, with anytime, anywhere access to features and functionality, enabling you to take full control of your learning journey.

UPSKILL YOUR TEAMS

Vital training ensures capability for an ever-evolving workforce, which is why the fuss-free cortexX™ functionality, features and interface make targeted learning a breeze. Deliver the skills needed in a timely manner, with multiple training types and practices in one place, ultimately providing a cost-effective avenue for your talent and business requirements.

COLLABORATE AND ENGAGE

From invaluable peer-to-peer learning support to live events, explore a world of collaboration through online social features, blogs, discussion threads and advanced engagement, with further options to create and share knowledge. Leading functionality also allows learner-centric flexibility that can be categorized and assigned, dependent on current skillsets, role or team types, therefore enabling maximum relevance.

ALL-IN-ONE PLACE

Gain quick and easy visibility to monitor past and present certified status, alongside regular training observations to actively track learning and assessments. By ensuring necessary compliancy reporting is always proven, maintained and up to date, centralized management access heightens security and safety clarity, with business risks efficiently reduced as a result.

PACKED WITH FEATURES AND FUNCTIONALITY

Maintaining efficiency and optimizing developmental flow is paramount. That's why we've ensured every enabled feature is enhanced and streamlined to meet all learning requirements. With quick access to essential tools and valuable elements, powerful results follow.

FOCUSED FUNCTIONALITY

Flexible learning options with an enhanced learner-centric interface and social features including chat areas and blogs.
